Lieut. Col. Crutchebank, Commander of Military District No. 13, Calgary and Inspector of Cadet Corps for Alberta, was in the city on Tuesday inspecting the corps in connection with Alexandra School. After the parade, the Lieut. Col., who briefly addressed the ranks regretted that there were not more boys in the detachment and was also sorry to note that many of the number were not in uniform. He hoped that the next time he had the pleasure of inspecting the corps at Wetaskiwin that the company would be numerically much stronger, also that each member of the company would be in proper uniform.

The many friends in this district of Miss Flora A. Bowie extend their heartfelt congratulations upon her marriage to Mr. Edward Cushman, which happy event took place at Red Deer, on Wednesday, Rev. The new chemical fire extinguisher, which was purchased by the city some time ago, reached the city on Saturday and was given a test on Tuesday afternoon. A bon fire was started near the city hall, and it was quickly quenched as soon as the liquid from the chemical was thrown on. Another test was made by placing a large coal oil torch in a barrel where the fumes from the acid very quickly killed the flame. A large number of citizens witnessed the test, and all appeared to be well satisfied that the engine will do good work. In a few weeks when the water is turned into the mains, Wetaskiwin will have fire protection second to none in Western Canada.

Hon. Duncan Marshall, Minister of Agriculture.

METHODIST CHURCH

Mr. J. L. Wright, recently from Prince Edward Island, will preach on Sunday morning. Out of respect to J. E. Hogg, who is delivering his farewell address in the Presbyterian church, the evening service is withdrawn.

The Methodist congregation on Sunday received an informal report of the work of the church during the past year. A slight decrease in membership is given, accounted for largely by removals and a more thorough revision of the church roll. Financially the returns were very good, about $1,200 having been raised for all purposes. The Missionary offerings totaled nearly $200; the whole amount for benevolent and outside purposes being about $400. The Ladies Aid raised $375 for the year. The number of baptisms was 23, marriages 22, burials 12.

REV. C. T. HOLMAN, PASTOR FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. C. T. Holman, who has accepted the call to become the pastor of the First Baptist church in Wetaskiwin, will conduct services here on Sunday next. Referring to his departure from Bracebridge, the Gazette says:

The congregation of the Baptist church were very much pained to learn last week that their pastor, Rev. C. T. Holman had decided to resign. Mr. Holman has worked the church very hard in Bracebridge and has endeavored himself very much to his people. When he began ministering there was only a membership of 49, but the growth has been phenomenal, there having been 71 added to the membership during the three years, 56 of them by baptism. A Young Peoples Union, a Young Ladies Mission Guild, and an Adult Bible Class have been formed and are all in a very active condition. There has been a change in the finances in keeping with the spiritual growth. At the beginning of Mr. Holman's work the church was receiving $120 a year missionary aid while it is now self supporting and paying an increased salary. Mr. Holman goes to Wetaskiwin, Alta., where he believes his field will be much larger than here.

BOW CITY

The Metropolis of Southern Alberta

Situated in the centre of Southern Alberta, and on the famous Bow River, at the intersection of two projected railways, is Bow City—the logical location for a great commercial and industrial city.

Bow City is surrounded by thousands of acres of broad, open fertile prairie land, while the city itself is immediately above one of the richest beds of bituminous coal ever unearthed in the Western Provinces.

The Bow Centre Collieries, Limited, are now developing their coal lands at Bow City. This gigantic corporation will, through the operation of their coal lands, eventually give employment to some 1,500 miners who will form the basis for a most prosperous town, while the thousands of prosperous farmers in the immediate vicinity of Bow City, will naturally establish a market and purchasing depot, equal in prominence and importance, as Winnipeg, Brandon, Calgary or Edmonton.

Bow City has a future; it is the point in the western prairies endowed by nature with all the natural resources which go towards laying the foundation for a great city.

The map reproduced herewith is taken from the government survey, and gives you the true location of Bow City.

You will see that it is twelve miles from the main line of the C. P. R. Bow City is to be the head quarters of the Bow River Railway Company's lines of railway operating south of the C. P. R. main line and to the United States boundary, tapping, as they will, the richest farming lands in the Province of Alberta.

The farmers in the vicinity of Bow City have no fear of drought, since the great O.P.R. irrigation system completely envelopes the whole district, thereby supplying water in dry seasons, insuring the maximum growth of crops at all times.

There is only one Bow City—there will never be another in our western hemisphere. It will be too late for you to apply for ground-floor prices in lots in Bow City a few days hence. This great coal mining and farming townsite will be sold off the market in the immediate future.

If you act promptly you can buy lots in Bow City at prices which prevailed in Calgary, Edmonton, Regina, Brandon, and other great points in the Western prairies five years ago.

A $50-dollar lot in Bow City, judging from the experience in other cities, should be worth and sell for $250 to $300 in four years' time. This means that those who take advantage of this advertisement, and make application at once for a $50 lot, remitting by the same mail ten per cent—$5—will be allotted a $50 lot close in.

Remember the terms of Bow City are—Ten per cent. cash, balance, ten per cent. per month; or, one-quarter each three months. Where all is remitted a discount of ten per cent. cash, and balance one quarter will be allowed.

Lot, and full particulars may be had on application to the sub-agents or General Agents of the Bow City Town site:—

W. A. DIMISTER, 77 McGeough Block, Calgary, Alberta.

Had a Bad Cough FOR A NUMBER OF YEARS. WAS AFRAID IT WOULD TURN INTO Consumption.

Too much stress cannot be laid on the fact that when a person catches cold it must be attended to immediately or serious results may follow.

Thousands have filled a consumptive grave through neglect.

Never Neglect a Cough or Cold, it can have but one result. It leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected.

 Mrs. A. E. Brown, Ottawa, Ont., writes— "I have suffered with a very bad cough every winter for a number of years which I was afraid would turn into consumption. I tried a great many remedies but only received temporary relief until I got a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and after taking two bottles my cough was cured. I am never without a bottle of Norway Pine Syrup." Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is the medicine you need. It cures all lung complaints, relieves or cures all Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Sore Throat, etc., and preventing Pneumonia and Consumptive.

So great has been the success of this wonderful remedy, it is only natural that numerous persons have tried to imitate it. Don't be imposed upon by taking anything but Dr. Wood's. Put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents.

METHODIST W. M. S.

Representatives from the missionary auxiliaries and mission bands of the Methodist Church in Alberta met in Red Deer last week in the first annual meeting of the Alberta branch of the Women's Missionary Society. At Moose Jaw last year the Northwest branch was divided into two branches, one for Saskatchewan and one for Alberta, and the Alberta ladies are much pleased to report that their increase in auxiliaries and membership this year is close up to the increase of the two provinces last year. The funds of the Society are raised almost altogether by straight giving, and are remitted to the W.M.S. Central Board of Management at Toronto, which controls the home and foreign mission work carried by the Society. A rather unique feature is that the Society only spends one year what is collected the year before, so it is not bothered by interest, except interest coming their way.

The annual report shows 23 auxiliaries, an increase of 7, with 626 members; mission circles 4, an increase of 3; mission bands 12, an increase of 4; little light-bearers membership 170, increase $3. The total receipts for the year were $248, a net increase of $712, almost all straight giving, the Pastor offering being $424.

BIG FOREST FIRES AT LESSER SLAVE LAKE

That immense forest fires have been raging for the past few weeks around Lesser Slave Lake and doing great damage to the timber in that country is the information brought to the city by J. K. Cornwall, M.P.P., for Peace River, who returned to Edmonton, says the Edmonton Bulletin.

"There has been $500,000 worth of timber destroyed in the past six weeks said Mr. Cornwall to the Bulletin last evening. 'and unless some steps are taken to get the fire under control the loss will be much greater.

The forestry conditions must be looked into," he continued, "or the timber districts in that district will be wiped out before long."

Mr. Cornwall's trip to Lesser Slave Lake has been largely for the purpose of getting his steamers, the Northland Sun and Northland Light, and the Northland Call plying on the Athabasca, Lesser Slave River and Lesser Slave Lake.

DAYS LAND JAPS PULL GUNS

Daysland, Alta., May 27—Fred Lewis and A. Anderson, narrowly escaped death at the hands of two Japs. The boys were entering the restaurant last night at 11 o'clock, and asked for two sandwiches, saying they would pay for them in the morning. After talking they started out. The Japs stopped them and after a few words, the Japs pulled their guns at which time Lewis started to run taking refuge in the hotel, the Jap firing at him as he went. Mr. Anderson was held in the restaurant at the point of a revolver. Upon a friend going to the restaurant and paying for the sandwiches Anderson was released.

Could Not Sleep In The Dark.

Doctor Said Heart and Nerves Were Unstable. There is many a man and woman (writing night after night upon a sleepless bed). Their eyes do not close in the sweet and refreshing slumber that comes to those whose heart and nerves are right. Some constitutional disturbances, worry, disease has so debilitated and irritated the nervous system, that it cannot be quieted.

Mrs. Calvin Stark, Rosmore, Ont., writes—"About two years ago I began to be troubled with a disturbing sensation at night, when I would lie down. I got so I could not sleep in the dark, and would have to sit up and rub my limbs, they would become so numb. My nerves and my heart were very nervous. I saw Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills advertised and got a box to try them. I took three boxes and can now lie down and sleep without the slightest trouble and even rest well. I can now go to the highly to all nervous and run in women."

SAVED FROM THE KNIFE

Appendicitis Cured By "Fruit-a-lives"

NEWBURN, ONT., Feb. 12th, 1910.

'Just about a year ago, our daughter Ella, (fourteen years), was taken with terrible pains in the right side. The pain was so severe that we had to carry her to bed. We at once put her under the care of a first-class doctor, who pronounced it a case of Appendicitis and advised an operation.

We took her to a hospital near Kingston where she was again examined by an eminent specialist. He said she had Appendicitis and must be operated on at once if we wanted to save her life. As we had taken her to Kingston to have this done, we were ready, but our daughter was afraid and cried and begged so pitifully, that we postponed it for that day. Luckily for us and for her, an uncle came in with some 'Fruit-a-lives' and insisted on Ella taking them. Good results were apparent almost from the first dose, and the continuous treatment cured her.

'Fruit-a-lives' saved our daughter from the surgeon's knife and to-day she is enjoying the best of health."

J. W. FOX, (Father).

LILLIAN FOX, (Mother).

Words cannot express the gratitude of Mr. and Mrs. Fox, and Miss Ella will always remember 'Fruit-a-lives'—the discovery of an eminent physician, and the only medicine in the world made of fruit. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial box 25c. I. O. F. CONVENTION

The High Court of the Independent Order of Foresters for the Province of Alberta met in the Masonic Hall last week, with Bro. W. J. Webster, High Chief Ranger, in the chair. Bro. Dr. G. H. Wade, Past High Chief Ranger of the province of Ontario, was present as representative of the Supreme Chief Ranger. The High Chief Ranger delivered an address of warm welcome to the delegates. The officers of the High Court submitted reports showing the order to be making good progress in the province. The last report of the supreme secretary shows that the reserve fund of the order is now close on sixteen million dollars, and that this grand order is continually growing. Committees were appointed to report on various matters. The following officers were elected: High Chief Ranger, W. J. Webster; Edmonton; Past High Chief Ranger, Arthur B. Cox; Pincher Creek; High Vice Ranger, J. A. Kinney; Edmonton; High Secretary, E. H. Crick; Calgary; High Physician Dr. Holton, Strathcona; High Counselor, P. W. Abbott, Edmonton; delegate to the supreme court, P. W. Abbott, with J. B. Davies as an alternate delegate; High Senior Woodward, G. Patterson; High Junior Woodward, C. R. McGowan; High Orator, J. Veomans; Red Deer; organist companion, Mrs. Wilson, Calgary; conductor Dr. Bruce of McLeod; Senior Beadle, R. Grievest; Junior Beadle, J. Oliver; Namay.

The court will meet in Lethbridge in 1912. It is having been decided that sessions will be held every three years. A wireless station is to be erected at Calgary. It is expected that this will furnish communication by wireless with Vancouver and Winnipeg.

More steel is now used in the manufacture of pens than that of swords. It is even said that the metal annually turned in pens weighs more than all the metal used during a year in all the war implement factories of all the world. Should this be true it emphasizes the saying, "The pen is mightier than the sword."

What does "gold filler" mean? Probably most people who buy gold filled watches fancy that they are mysteriously impregnated with gold. As a matter of fact, the term is misleading. Gold filled watches consist of two sets of gold, between which is placed a section of solder-coated brass metal. This metallic sandwich is heated and pressed, so that the three parts are welded together, with the gold outside.—Exchange.

The Hercules Rotary Engine

Referring to the Hercules Rotary Engine which is now being demonstrated in Calgary this week, the Alberta says:

If you were an inventor working your brain tired to try to make what the world has been trying to make for a hundred years—a rotary engine—and a great government should come to your shop and offer you a contract that meant twenty-three million dollars to you, you would likely get excited wouldn't you? If one government offered you that much and you stopped and remembered that there are dozens of governments and hundreds of great companies, each using almost as many steam engines as a nation, you would get very much excited over your prospects.

They said that no good thing could come out of Nazareth. We are always inclined to think that no great thing can come out of our little community and so, when we are told that out of the town of Wetaskiwin has come an engine that gives promise of revolutionizing the steam engine business of the world, of supplanting all engines now in use, rendering them obsolete, we are inclined to be skeptical. But this is an age of wonders and we should be surprised at nothing.

As children in school we have all heard how Watt saw the steam plating with the little lid and conceived the idea of a steam engine. As a matter of fact we didn't begin with the boiling kettle. Hero's engine was the first steam engine of which we have any record. It is described in a manuscript by Hero of Alexandria, a man lived probably about 100 B. C., and was a crude form of the modern turbine. In the sixteenth century the Stalio engine, Branca, made a paddle-wheel and propelled it by a jet of steam. These, however, were only toys, wonderful toys in their way, but the real engine was not a fact until the day of the Marquis of Worcester, Savary, Papin, Newcomen and Watt.

Watt was a watchmaker and a mechanic of wonderful skill. He was engaged to prepare a model of Newcomen's engine, belonging to the Glasgow University, and from this undertaking developed the powerful engine that has set the world afeet at so marvellous a pace.

From the day of Watt until the present there has been no great revolutionary development in the principle of the application of steam power. Watt made a reciprocating engine with a slide valve and a crank shaft and no one has been able to improve upon it up to the present. The art of mechanics has been perfect wonderfully and the engine has become a terrific power, but the engine of the day of Watt. You have all watched it at work, have watched the piston move back and forth and marvelled at its energy.

Engine Without a Piston
Up in Wetaskiwin they have built an engine without a piston! Engineers have seen trying in vain since the history of steam power to accomplish this thing practically to build a rotary engine. They have all failed all but one. This one man skill mechanic, one day saw a vision of such an engine. He drew it out on paper and developed it. A ten horse model was built and lunched to the Wetaskiwin electric light plant. It worked. This little thing, weighing only its hundred pounds, base and all pulled a 72 h. p. generator, a 24 h. p. load and pulled it without a halt. When it was taken out the other day to be shipped to the iron works to serve as the model for a 600 h. p. engine, its place was taken by an old style 150 h. p. engine, weighing 150 tons.

This little Hercules was shipped to Calgary and is now on exhibition at Room 24 in the Grain Exchange. Mr. W. B. McChesney, the patentee and principal stockholder of the Hercules Rotary Engine Company, Limited, is explaining its mechanism to interested people. This week it will be shipped to an eastern iron works where a 600 h. p. test and demonstrating engine will be built, and from the day steam is turned into this giant the world of mechanics will certainly experience a revolution in the history of the world. A real milestone will have been reached in the progress of this marvelous world.

Principle of the Engine
The principle of the rotary engine has been conceived by steam men since the days of Watt to be the right principle for working steam, combining, as it does, the perfect expansion of steam with full leverage, applying the power of a rotary movement to the shaft, thereby doing away with vibration caused by the intermittent power of a reciprocating engine, and eliminating the necessity of great weight in the flywheel and other parts to withstand the strain of an intermittent pressure. Hausman, an engine builder, has spent forty years in fruitless effort to combine the principle practically, but has never got beyond an unsuccessful model. Any man has only to study the successful model of the Hercules to be convinced of its wonderful genius and its vast possibilities.

What People Say
Professor Miller, professor of mechanics at the Stratona University went to Wetaskiwin to see the Hercules. He entered the engine room with assurance, expecting to finish his inspection in about five minutes. After he had looked it over casually he was asked what he thought. He pleaded for more time. At the end of a two hour investigation he paused and said two things: "It is the greatest thing I ever saw," and "I expect to see the day when, on account of this, a reciprocating engine cannot be sold."

A marine engineer in charge of one of the American ships that went on the around-the-world cruise, declared to the inventor, after an inspection, that he has the turbine beaten as far as the turbine beats a wheel barrow.

Looks Good to Price
Mr. A. Price, general superintendent of the C.P.R., last night declared to the writer that in his opinion this engine has accomplished the successful application of the principles striven for in a rotary engine and that it would possibly revolutionize the steam engine building. "It is a very ingenious affair, new and startling," he declared. "It overcomes vibration, being perfectly balanced, I am not a practical mechanic, and can not pass an authoritative opinion, but it looks good to me."

He said that the Winnipeg business was stopped over in Wetaskiwin to see it and were surprised and starting. One of the forty were practical mechanics and they declared it possesses wonderful possibilities.

What is Claimed For it
Mr. McChesney claims, and is able to demonstrate, that this engine will produce more power at about half the cost of the ordinary engine, as will be readily understood upon careful inspection of its wonderful construction. It is claimed that it will save one of the great ocean grey hounds, thousands of dollars in coal per trip, let alone the saving in storage room and the greater cargo capacity. It will cost far less to construct than the ordinary engine. It is an overvibration, an insensible motion, and it is so constructed that it will be able to operate in a very small space, work, the power being applied direct to the main shaft, resulting in no vibration, no belting. It is a reversible engine, the turbine is not. Marine engines must be able to be reversed, to start, stop and run in either direction and to accomplish this with a turbine a second engine is necessary and a second engine is necessary to reverse the turbine. It is so constructed that this engine can only be realized upon inspection.

It will be possible with this engine to revolutionize locomotive building. Its perfect principle will enable the production of great power with infinitely less weight and the mechanism of this engine have a train design in which, by the use of this engine, the power can be applied to the wheels throughout the train. A modern locomotive weighs away above a hundred tons. It is rigid massive. Its great weight rests upon the rail on a very small bearing. So this, more than anything else, do they assign the cause of wrecks and the loss of life and property. With a rotary engine, the propelling power can be distributed throughout the length of the train, and as Mr. McChesney expresses it, instead of a great engine at one end pulling the train, the power can be distributed to the wheels and the train rolled along the tracks. By this means a vastly greater speed can be obtained with safety, the observation car can be at the front and a wonderful saving effected in the cost of fuel.

One of the great governments maintained a corps of engines for months investigating this engine and attempting to deal for it. They offered upon the working of a large test engine to pay a bonus of $2,000,000 and replace 14,000,000 h. p. paying for the same $150 per h. p. The company was not fully organized and so did not fully negotiate to a conclusion. But they know that upon the successful operation of their test engine they can deal with the government, with not only this government, but with every progressive government in the world. The possibilities of the proposition from a standpoint of making millions are stupendous.

The company is organized for a million dollars divided into 100 shares. There are only 130 shares for sale and these are offered at par. The president of the company is G. D. Wallace of Wetaskiwin and E. G. Ruddle is secretary-treasurer. The directors are W. B. McChesney, Mayor Montgomery Craig, of the Merchants Bank, Dr. T. E. Hobbart, and H. L. Higgin. The Merchants Bank is trustee and reference.

OFFICIAL OPENING OF KING EDWARD SCHOOL

Friday last was pre-eminently "Our Pupils' Day" at the King Edward school. Pretty robes in white with dainty sash of pink or blue, their free-flowing golden tresses and luxuriant auburn curls lending poles and grace to their nymphlike forms, our airy, fairy little maidens, gallantly supported by stalwart youths, tied with one another in welcoming manner, lending tone and dignity to the occasion. In a few well chosen words, he outlined the progressive policy of the school board, congratulating the parents on their good fortune in securing so competent a principal and staff for the King Edward school.

The selections contributed by the children were especially worthy of mention, and reflected great credit upon both themselves and their teachers. Principal, J. J. Stapleton, M. A., in the closing sentences of his brief address took advantage of the opportunity to express a few words of commendation on the high character of the work being accomplished by the teachers in this latest addition to our educational institutions.

The following was the program:—Address—Mr. Fowler.
Chorus—Canada, Our Fathers Land of Old.

Recitation—Martha Wiebe.
Chorus—Here's a Ball For Baby.
Recitation—Ivan and Erabel Finch.
Address—Rev. A. R. Aldridge.
Song—Joy Runaway.
Chorus—Merry Farmer Boy.

Recitation—Three Little Lads at School.
Duet—Ivy and Duncan Ramsey.

Recitation—Irene Mills.
Chorus—Good Mother Hen.
Address—Principal.

COMMUNICATION

We do not necessarily endorse the sentiments advanced by this or any other correspondent appearing under this heading.

To the Editor of The Times,
Dear Sir:—In the last issue of The Post I noticed an article, signed Treb, which sneers in a wholesale way at womankind. I hope it is not thought that the men of this town approve of such a low-down article. It is not so for I have heard much indignation expressed over it. I have a theory about Treb. I think he is an only child, who, while yet an infant, lost his mother; for, had he been brought up by a good mother, associating in his younger days with a good sister and later been the lover of a nice girl, he never would have penned such an article. If my theory be correct, it is pity he needs—not condemnation. But what about the man—the married man—who would publish such an article? Verily, verily there are some people for whom no excuse—no theoretical or otherwise—can be found.
